

Perhaps the most underrated aspects of puppy development - Toys. The goal here is for the dog to learn while both you and your dog enjoy yourselves. And there's more to dog's toys than just ropes, balls & squeaky toys. There's an assortment of games which challenge dogs' instincts so they can solve the puzzle. No wonder pet experts recommend puzzles for dog which helps them satiate their natural curiosity. We have a fun selection of toys dogs are bound to find incredibly interesting.

A dog is shown in profile, sitting on a light-colored floor and interacting with a wooden puzzle toy. The background is a solid red color with several white and light red circular shapes of varying sizes. The text '05 Dog Toys' is overlaid on the right side of the image.
